

Announcing a new PTA initiative to help you get families involved in the educational lives of their children - Three for Me! Parents pledge three hours to help their children during the school year. The program provides:

- Creative ways to connect all families to their children's schools and education
- Ideas to strengthen home-school-community partnerships
- Resources to motivate parents

Just three easy steps to get PTA Three for Me started at your school:

- 1. Get your school principal excited about improving parent involvement.*
- 2. Register your PTA at www.three4me.com. It's free, easy, and takes just a few minutes.*
- 3. Get started! Download free tools: the Three for Me starter kit, promise cards, stickers, volunteer tracking forms, certificates, and more.*
